"Know what you believe and why you believe it"

We are not in the business of telling anyone what to believe or not to believe.
We are in the business of provoking people to question their faith and presumptions.

We let HaShem (G-d) do the convincing.

Faith is developed by questioning and searching. Those that fear or resist the questioning of their faith, have a faith based upon straw. Those that welcome it have much riches waiting for them.

We don't claim to have the whole truth and nothing but the truth. However, we do claim to be willing to search. We aim to be in union with the truth (Torah).
